UMPIRES ISSUE SET OF RULES

To the Players and Managers of the City League:

We wish to call your attention to a few of the rules that you are expected to observe during the coming season.

All games will be called at 5 o'clock promptly, regardless of any players who may be late. Managers are hereby warned to have enough players on the field to start the game on time. The player limit of 15 men will permit of this at all times.

Players must refrain from participating in arguments or protests. This rule will be rigidly enforced by prompt suspension of the player violating the rule. Protests must come from managers only, and players are required to stay in their respective positions.

The umpires respectfully urge that as little time as possible be consumed in changing sides at the end of each inning.

We are giving our time and efforts on the same basis as the players and we shall expect the fullest co-operation from both players and managers.

Without the fullest co-operation the game will not be the source of pleasure and recreation to all concerned that it should be.

L. B. DIVELEBISS,
R. C. M'REE.
City League Umpires.

To Show World's Great Cathedrals

J. HOWARD ALBERT

A noted world traveler, lecturer and pianist, J. Howard Albert, who has the distinction of having visited more of the world's 1,213 cathedrals than any other man, will appear in person at the Princess Theatre, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday.

Prof. Albert carries with him 80 illustrative slides of the 32 most famous cathedrals of the world and during the past fifteen years has spoken in 10,126 theatres. He personally has visited 826 of the world's noted church edifices, and is thoroughly posted in a very entertaining way upon the historical events associated with these structures.

Delightful Philathea Party.

The social, so charming a feature of the class work, and the class spirit, and a regular quarterly event of the First Methodist Philathea Class, was given in the Baraca room last Monday afternoon.

Decorated with luxuriant ferns and vases overflowing with sweet peas and nasturtiums, the Baraca room was in gala attire in honor of the occasion. Circles No. 3 and 4 were the hostesses, having planned, through their committee of entertainment, a program, conspicuously pleasing, that was delightfully carried out, and which included among its pleasing numbers, Irving Cobb's "Hark From the Tomb," given by Doctor Lawrence G. Painter in his happiest vein.

Doctor Painter read, also, selections in verse.

An instrumental solo, interpreted with musical feeling, was given by Miss Alice Wilbanks; Mrs. Sterling Thrower sang, with charm, "By the Waters of the Minnetonka," and "Silver Threads Among the Gold" was contributed by a quartet composed of Mesdames T. L. Lawrence, J. K. Egger and H. A. Alvarez, and Miss Lizzie Pendleton.

The feature of the program that included all who were present in an animated participation was a word contest on "Philathea," in which Mrs. Hulan was awarded a dainty handkerchief for skill in composing the most words from the given letters.

Those present were regaled with a delicious ice course after the program. Circles No. 3 and 4 were hostesses, with Mesdames F. W. Norwood and Neyman as chairmen of the following committees: Mesdames Walter Phillips, A. T. McIlwain, Sterling Thrower, Bookout, W. M. Horton, J. W. Thetford, G. N. Wood, Miss Lizzie Pendleton, Mesdames M. T. DeLoach, T. L. Lawrence, Davis, McConnell, Ollie Shearer, and Misses Bessie Thomas, Mamie Sue Sherrod, and Dora Houston.

First Baptist W. M. U. Program.

On last Tuesday afternoon, the hospitable home of Mrs. T. W. Townsend was thrown open in gracious welcome to the members of the First Baptist W. M. U., with Mesdames T. W. Townsend, J. W. Jones, J. H. Lawley and W. R. Sparks as joint hostesses at a regular program meeting.

Mrs. W. R. Sparks was leader for the afternoon. The subject of the program, "Prayer," was discussed from various points of view—in short talks and papers, bringing out—in well-chosen phrases, the salient features emphasizing their several subjects.

Mrs. E. T. Sykes' opening prayer was followed by talks on "Personal Service," a talk of work in the Louisville Training School, given by Miss Mary Brownlee; a paper on "Prayer and the Present Crisis," by Mrs. Troy Funk; "Prayer, Answered and Unanswered," by Mrs. J. G. Borkitt; "Prayer in a Missionary Meeting," by Mrs. Walter Breland; "Thoughts on Prayer," by Mrs. E. B. Stinson. Intermingled with the missionary talks were songs and readings by young ladies from M. S. C. W., which added very much to the pleasure of the entertainment. Miss Rebecca Lott gave a vocal solo; Miss Virginia Pringle, a reading; Misses Bordeaux and Strickland, a duet; and, during the social hour, several vocal and instrumental selections were given by a number of students from the Mississippi State College for Women. Fifty-three members of the organization were present.

Tribute of Respect to Mrs. Wright.

Last Tuesday afternoon, the regular missionary program of the First Methodist Missionary Society was shortened, and the meeting was resolved into a memorial to a late and honored member, Mrs. S. L. Wright, as a testimonial of the esteem and regard in which Mrs. Wright was held by her associates, as well as her zealous work in religious activities. Other organizations of the church united with the Missionary Society, their representatives giving, very feelingly, brief eulogies of their co-worker. On behalf of the missionary societies, Mesdames T. F. McBeath, T. M. Lipscomb and Battle Bell expressed tributes of respect, while Mrs. M. B. Patterson and Mrs. E. S. Moore represented the Pastor's Aid. The Wesley Class was represented by Mrs. Sarah Sheffield, Mrs. A. T. Sale and Mrs. John Lipsey.

Mrs. S. B. Hudson and Mrs. Louise Landrum were appointed a committee to draft resolutions of respect.

First Methodist Missionary Society.

The Missionary Society of the First Methodist Church will cancel its social meeting, next Tuesday, out of respect to the memory of Mrs. S. L. Wright, whose death recently deprived the society of one of its most earnest and most consecrated members.

DO YOU HAVE TO TRAVEL TO SEE A REAL BATH ROOM?

Many people see a modern bath room only when they are traveling and stopping at good hotels.

The home with a makeshift bath room outfit, or none at all, is not the place in which your family deserves to live. Why not have the facilities in your home for bathing in comfort and convenience.

The spring season is the accepted time to start home improvements. Begin in the most important place—make your bath room modern.

We'll gladly give you ideas and figures to meet your particular requirements.

Adjustment Is Over

—A happy medium reached. The pendulum, which lately swung from over-prosperity and waste and extravagance, to the extreme of uncertainty and debt and confusion, now swings back to dead center—a happy medium has been reached.

—And this bank, through confidence in you and faith in the future, is firm in its belief that the worst is past; that the days to come are destined to be happy, prosperous days for you and for us.

In the Days of Louis XIV Coffee Was a Luxury

History has this to say regarding the serving of coffee in the court of Louis XIV—

"In gorgeous costumes, on bended knees, black slaves presented coffee in tiny cups of egg-shell porcelain, with saucers of gold and silver, and embroidered silk napkins, to the grand dames of the period."

Most everybody drinks coffee now—rich and poor alike—it costs so little, even when the highest grade coffee is used.
